FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WaterStone Bank Donates Scholarship Funds to Over 40 Local High Schools, Celebrates the Class of 2022

Wauwatosa, Wis. – 5/27/2022 – WaterStone Bank announced today that it has donated scholarship funds to more than 40 local high schools.

The scholarships, an annual donation from the WaterStone Bank Foundation, are awarded to graduating seniors who have demonstrated exceptional character, academic commitment, and a desire to excel in their educational endeavors.

“WaterStone Bank would like to congratulate all our graduating Seniors,” said WaterStone Bank CEO, Doug Gordon. “The scholarship recipients, and their parents, should be proud of their high school achievements as they are our future leaders.”

The WaterStone Bank Foundation was established in 2002 with the Waukesha County Community Foundation in order to ensure the bank’s ability to continually give back to the communities in which it serves. In 2019, the WaterStone Bank Foundation donated over $700,000 to more than 200 local nonprofits.
